

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer

Folk, Roots & More Musical Traditions | www.cathymarcy.com

TWO-TIME GRAMMY® Award Winners, Cathy Fink and Marcy Marxer are master musicians with a career spanning over 35 years. Their superb harmonies are backed by instrumental virtuosity on the guitar, five-string banjo, ukulele, mandolin, cello-banjo, and more. Their repertoire ranges from classic country to western swing, gypsy jazz to bluegrass, and old-time string band to contemporary folk (including some original gems).

Cathy & Marcy have performed at hundreds of bluegrass and folk festivals and taught at close to 100 music camps worldwide. Happily known as “social music conductors” ready to start a jam session, a community sing, or create a music camp helping others learn to play and sing, the duo’s past students include Kaki King and Rhiannon Giddens.

They have performed with Pete Seeger, Theodore Bikel, Tom Paxton, Patsy Montana, Riders in the Sky, and a wide range of musical luminaries. They have entertained the Queen of Thailand, been keynote singers for the AFL-CIO, appeared on the “Today Show” and on National Public Radio. The Washington Area Music Association has recognized the duo with over 60 WAMMIE Awards for folk, bluegrass, and children’s music. Cathy & Marcy advocate in Washington for unions, health care for children, and the rights and livelihoods of artists.

The duo has toured worldwide, from Japan to New Zealand, Vancouver to New York, South Africa to Israel and everywhere in between. Recent festivals and venues include Merlefest, Wintergrass, Denver Ukefest, and Kate Wolf Music Festival. American Voices Abroad chose Cathy & Marcy with fiddler Barbara Lamb to perform in China, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea and Vanuatu as cultural ambassadors for the U.S. Department of State.

Cathy & Marcy earned GRAMMY Awards for their recordings “cELLABration: a Tribute to Ella Jenkins”, and “Bon Appétit!: Musical Food Fun”. Their CD’s “Postcards” and “Banjo Talkin’” were GRAMMY finalists in the Best Traditional Folk Album category.

Cathy & Marcy currently live in Silver Spring, Maryland and Lansing, North Carolina.

Program Offerings

AN EVENING WITH CATHY FINK & MARCY MARXER

Enjoy an eclectic mix of the duo's favorite original and traditional folk, old time country, and swing tunes, featuring superb vocal harmonies and dazzling instrumentals. The duo's consummate musicianship is matched by their enthusiasm for group singing, song leading, and inspiring people of all ages to get in on the fun.

The duo intersperses stories of the places they've visited and the incredible people they've met along the way such as Ola Belle Reed, Patsy Montana (first woman in country music to sell one million records), Lily Mae Ledford, Roy Smeck, and many more musical mentors.

ROCKIN' THE UKE

Cathy & Marcy explore their versatility on the ukulele as they travel through blues, swing, old time county, folk and original songs - all in virtuoso style. From Django inspired solos to lush harmony singing, you'll enjoy the "silver throated slayer on your record player" in this all-ages concert. The duo's consummate musicianship is matched by their entertaining patter featuring soprano, tenor and baritone ukuleles along with the cello banjo, five-string banjo and guitar.

GRAMMY-WINNING FAMILY CONCERTS

Cathy & Marcy are trailblazers in children's music and have been connecting families through music for over thirty years. Over 6,000 shows in performing arts centers, schools, folk festivals, community centers, libraries, and children's festivals have given Cathy & Marcy the superb skills to deliver a show that is fun, wacky, energetic, participatory, and meaningful. From an "Air Guitar" band to yodeling lessons and sing-able tongue twisters, their shows bring families together and allow kids to have fun and learn at the same time.

"They are spellbinding acoustic musicians, with a rare mastery of American roots styles. Parents will be as entertained by the sublime." - The Boston Globe

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The duo enjoys planning activities with presenters to match the communities in which they work. Suggested topics include: Community Sing, Songwriting, Harmony Singing, and more. Instrument workshops are offered for all levels on banjo, ukulele, and guitar. Cathy & Marcy also offer professional development for educators and librarians as well as new parents and caregivers of young children.
